Fabian Modena

As the Manager of Horwath HTL Health & Wellness, Fabian directs the market research, development strategies, and feasibility studies – along with concept development – for bespoke wellness-centric hospitality and mixed-use real estate developments. Fabian has completed numerous diverse assignments across the Asia Pacific region, the Middle East, Europe, and the Caribbean. Before joining Horwath HTL, Fabian worked as the Assistant Manager of Hotel Development with Orascom Hotels & Development. He was involved in the development of all luxury hotels and resorts in Oman, Montenegro, Morocco, Egypt, and Switzerland. Prior to his engagement in the development industry, Fabian began his hospitality career with the Ritz-Carlton Hotels in China and Thailand.

Fabian graduated with two degrees in international hospitality management and finance from Glion Institute of Higher Education and Les Roches-Gruyere University of Applied Science, Switzerland. He also holds a certificate in Hotel Real Estate Investments & Asset Management from Cornell University and the Swiss Restaurant License, bringing multidisciplinary experience as an operator, developer and researcher to his work.
