

Tobias Klöpf

Young, top networked, full of vigor. The educated Travel Agent and Business Assistant studied Tourism Management B.A. and International Business Administration M.A. He gained experiences in travel sales and convention business. He works freelance for the great german travel trade fairs, the Dream and Adventure Multivision show, different universities and the Bikealpin GmbH. He plans and moderates industry events, holds speeches, and shares his experiences as guide and lecturer. As founder and leader of the Young Travel Industry Club he stands up for the young tourism professionals. In the board of the Travel Industry Club, Germans leading tourism network, he is responsible for Marketing and Partnerships. At weekends he starts in mountain bike races and triathlons. The Swabian loves and lives networking and is every time looking up for synergies. Let's connect!
