

Laetitia Hörnler

As a management graduate of Cambridge University in the UK, I have over 8 years of work experience in PR and Marketing in international agencies. I'm also a mother of three children and a passionate founder of mamis travelguide, the first travel booking platform for discerning families in the German speaking market www.mamistravelguide.com. I love to travel and go skiing and hiking in the mountains.
